

WESLEY MEMORIAL METHODIST CHURCH EPWORTH

Remembrance Day is an important day in National Life.
However remembrance is also a very personal thing
which can engage our emotions of both joy and sorrow.

REMEMBERINGS

A quiet, gentle space
to remember a loved one and to look forward in love.

Leave the busyness
of the world for a while.

Listen to music

Light a candle

Hear some reassuring words

Reflect on encouraging
readings

Lord, you have been our dwelling-place
throughout all generations.
Before the mountains were born
or you brought forth the earth
and the world,
from everlasting to everlasting
you are God.
You turn back to dust,
saying, "Return to dust, O sons
of men"

Psalm 90 Vs 1-3 (NIV)

Our Future, Reshaping for Mission More Conversations and A Reminder A very brief update this time about some further wider conversations which we will be organising over the next few months.

Local Preachers and Worship Leaders Circuit stewards Church stewards We want to hear from you about how you think the role might be reshaped to focus more on discipleship and mission.

So, if you are in any of those groups this is an invitation to start thinking about this now.

The fruits of these conversations will be part of our thinking at next April's Synod.

The reminder is that there is FAQ page on the District website, which was published as update 4 on 2nd July 2026 as a result of the various Circuit conversations.

If you have a question, please take a look and see if someone has already asked it.

We're always happy to answer new questions that come up, please get in touch with Alison in the District office or with me directly.

God bless,
Rev Angy
