

TALK & BOOK SIGNING

AUTHOR ADRIAN GRAY

£5

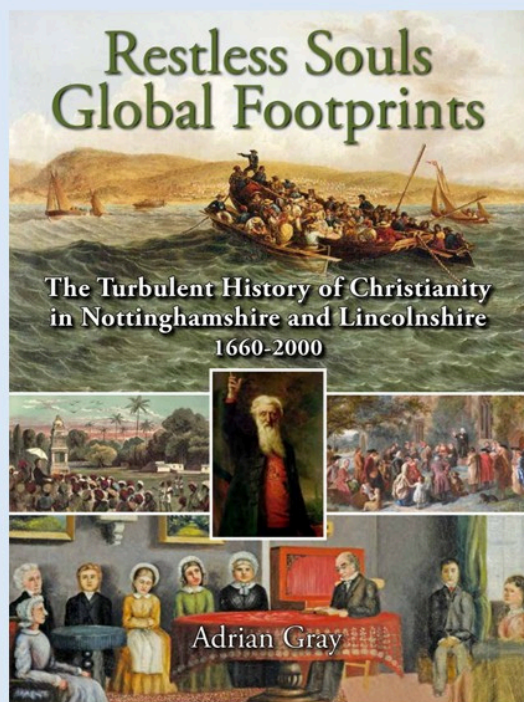

Epworth
Old Rectory

Saturday, 1 November 2pm-4pm

Come hear about men like John Wesley, Alexander Kilham,
Richard Bernard and 'a chap named Shadford'.

Your admission ticket gets you £5 off the price of the new book!

Discover Lincolnshire's Glorious Christian Heritage

A new book by well-known Lincolnshire historian ADRIAN GRAY tells the epic story of how Christians from Lincolnshire revived Christianity in their own land and took their Faith to the furthest ends of the Earth.

- Most will know the Wesley story, but did you know that 'General' Booth also began his ministry in Lincolnshire?
- Trace the early stages of inspirational movements like Primitive Methodism and Pentecostalism in Lincolnshire
- Explore the story of major missions to India, China and Africa that began in Lincolnshire
- Find out how a group of country clergy from around Skegness helped to end slavery in eastern Africa
- All this plus the first Baptist theologian, the man who inspired Wilberforce and some of the earliest women preachers

NEW BOOK available October from all good bookshops, Boston Guildhall and direct from <https://bookwormretford.co.uk/>

Tickets available in the Gift Shop or through Eventbrite.